WHO WE ARE

Hanfi & Co is a law firm operating in Pakistan with a focus on client service and tailored legal solutions that go beyond the boilerplate.

The firm prides itself on its commitment to providing quality legal advice that combines technical expertise and understanding of commercial considerations.

Our clients include financial institutions, banks, private companies and start-ups. We strive to exceed the expectations of our clients and are committed to delivering excellent results. At Hanfi & Co we recognize the value of seam-less service and a job done right.

WHAT WE DO

Banking & Finance: We advise on Islamic and conventional modes of financing and our services include drafting of finance and security documents.

Regulatory Compliance: We identify regulatory compliance obligations and our work includes compliance counseling, regulator communication and advising on internal compliance policies.

Intellectual Property: Our services include registration of copyrights and trademarks with the Intellectual Property Organization of Pakistan, as well as advising on licensing, trademark assignment, data protection and infringement disputes. We regularly assist our clients with IP related agreements and developing internal policies.

Corporate Advisory: We advise financial institutions, banks and companies and their boards and management on their business needs with respect to day-to-day matters as well as joint ventures transactions.

Employment & Labour: The firm has experience in issuing legal opinions on labour and employment laws of Pakistan and all matters ancillary thereto. We have drafted employment agreements and appeared before employment tribunals on behalf of our clients.

Startups & Fintech: We render advice to new businesses with respect to incorporating their companies, obtaining regulatory approvals, payment gateway licenses, and investment structuring (including SAFEs, ESOPS and Founder Stock Purchases). We have further guided clients through funding rounds with international VCs.
